

2011 - 2012 CAP - College Awareness and Preparation Volunteer Form

College Awareness and Preparation Committee (CAP) initiatives are being coordinated throughout Illinois. Dozens of sites throughout the state will kick off CAP events to assist families in the Admissions, Financial Aid, and college preparation process, including completing their 2012 - 2013 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The CAP Committee is beginning to gather names of those individuals who would like to volunteer at an event/workshop. Please provide the following information if you would like to volunteer. Regional volunteer assignments will be a priority so that you are as close to home as possible, based upon finalization of the sites. You will be contacted to confirm your availability.
