What Happens Next

- If you have not yet completed the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®) for the same academic year you are applying for the ECACE program, you must do so as part of the application process. To determine your eligibility for the scholarship, the ECACE participating Illinois college at which you plan to use the ECACE award must be listed on your FAFSA. Access the online FAFSA at fafsa.gov.
- Be sure the financial aid office at the college you plan to attend knows you will be enrolling and that you have submitted an ECACE Scholarship Program application.
- You will receive notification of your award status after the priority access to funding date, August 11, 2024, has passed.
- If you submitted your application after the priority access to funding date, your application would continue to be considered for awarding as long as funding remains available after all timely, qualified applications have been awarded. However, please note, it is unlikely that students applying after the priority submission date will receive an award in the 2024-25 academic year.
- Your college(s) will inform you about your financial aid award package. If you have questions about your award package, contact your college(s).
- If you need to make corrections to the information you submitted on your ECACE application, follow the instructions provided in the Changes to Application Data section of the Early Childhood Access Consortium for Equity Scholarship Program page at isac.org.

If you have questions about ECACE and/or the application process, visit us at isac.org, call an ISAC Student Engagement Representative at 800.899.ISAC (4722) or e-mail us at isac.studentservices@illinois.gov.

ISAC administers other scholarship and grant programs that can provide financial assistance to help you pay for college. To learn more about the financial aid process and available programs, visit our website at isac.org.
